JUSTICE REFORM STARTS WITH YOU.

TOGETHER WE CAN MAKE A DIFFERENCE.
MEMBER BENEFITS:

• Involvement in NCJFCJ’s federal policy efforts. Be part of a collective voice to positively influence legislation, policy, and practice.

• Appointment to NCJFCJ Committees, which advance the work of the NCJFCJ on juvenile and family law matters.

• Subscription to the Juvenile and Family Court Journal (quarterly), and IN SESSION, NCJFCJ’s Member e-Magazine. Opportunities for submitting articles to the Journal and IN SESSION are available. NCJFCJ/NJCSA members also receive Rapport, the National Juvenile Court Services Association (NJCSA) newsletter.

• Access to a Members Only website, and networking opportunities with key professionals and judges across the country who are also working to improve outcomes for children, families, and victims of domestic violence.

• Discounts on select NCJFCJ publications and registration fees for select conferences and continuing education opportunities. The NCJFCJ provides instruction by national experts addressing emerging issues in the field at a level of excellence exceeded by no other organization.

• Access to current, pertinent information, and technical assistance ranging from bench tools to in-depth, individualized, or on-site consultation to assist with planning for systems change (fees may be associated). Your membership provides support for a broad array of innovative technical assistance to the judiciary. We work with you to develop and implement local solutions, guided by the best in effective practices.

• Through our research, gain access to data, statistics, targeted and applied research, as well as research-based publications that will assist you in improving court practice or advocating for improvement in juvenile and family court systems.

• A 25% discount on books purchased from Wiley-Blackwell, the prominent publisher of more than 1,400 titles with an entire section of law and criminology volumes.

• A discount on car rental rates at Enterprise Car Rental.
