What can juvenile and family courts do to respond to trauma?

Challenging Behavior

Types of Adverse Childhood Experiences (ACEs)

The Role of a Judge

Judges should consider

Judges can promote

Judges can build a trauma-informed juvenile and family court

Supportive Services

Resource and Multidisciplinary Families

Workshop on Adverse Childhood Experiences (ACEs)

The Trauma-Informed Child: Understanding ACEs

Website: www.traumainformedcourt.org

DEFENDING CHILDHOOD | FUTURES PROJECT | NCFC

Defending Childhood: Future Project | NCFC