Part III Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

Check if Schedule O contains a response or note to any line in this Part III

1 Briefly describe the organization's mission: Charitable and Educational purposes include: a) improving the standards, practices, and effectiveness of courts exercising jurisdiction over families and children; b) informing or assisting those who deal with or affect these courts; c) educating persons connected with these courts and other interested members of the public in developments and principles relating to such courts; and d) engaging in educational and research activities in furtherance of the foregoing objectives.

2 Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ? [] Yes [x] No If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O.

3 Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services? [] Yes [x] No If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O.

4 Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported.

4a (Code:) (Expenses $ 4,545,481 including grants of $ 268,494) (Revenue $ 744,764) Crime Control & Prevention Programs: the Juvenile Law projects, as well as national conferences which overlap program services, provided training, technical assistance and other services for 4,104 judges, other court professionals, attorneys, and child welfare service providers through 92 trainings, conferences, collaborative meetings, technical assistance or court observation site visits. In an effort dedicated to improving court practice in juvenile justice cases, the NCJFCJ continues to implement the "Juvenile Delinquency Guidelines", which is framed by 15 Key Principles of Practice and is being used by judges, prosecutors, defense counsel, child advocates, probation officers, law enforcement, and service providers nationwide. The NCJFCJ's "Project ONE Initiative" supports multi-court collaboration and resulted from the NCJFCJ Cross-Over Committee's "Unified Model Court Concept Paper" which discusses the need for collaboration among courts in order to achieve best outcomes for dually-involved children, youth, and families. Other projects address: Mental Health: Trauma-Informed Systems of Care; Implicit Bias and Social Cognition; Domestic Child Sex Trafficking, Issues of Military Families; Impact of Substance Abuse and Training and Technical Assistance to Improve Juvenile Drug Courts through the Implementation of Evidence-Based Practices; Tribal Resources and Collaboration; (Continued on Schedule O, Statement 1)

4b (Code:) (Expenses $ 3,925,907 including grants of $ 140,926) (Revenue $ 331,158) Crime Control & Prevention Programs: Family Violence and Domestic Relations projects provided training, technical assistance and other services for 2,204 judges and other court professionals and direct-service providers through 33 trainings, conferences, and provider/collaborative meetings and 271 technical assistance requests. The National Council of Juvenile and Family Court Judges (NCJFCJ) has advanced change in courts and communities across the country by providing cutting-edge training, technical assistance, and policy development on issues related to the effects of abuse across a lifespan. NCJFCJ's projects have enhanced the safety, well-being, and stability of domestic violence victims and their children by improving the response of criminal, civil, and social justice systems. NCJFCJ has provided assistance to judges and others on protection orders, elder abuse, child custody, and a host of other issues related to domestic violence. NCJFCJ also examines the intersection of domestic violence and child custody and child support issues. NCJFCJ maintains a lending library of books, videos, curricula, bench tools, policy manuals, and other publications. NCJFCJ educates judges in domestic violence through the "National Judicial Institute on Domestic Violence." NCJFCJ also hosts and maintains the "Safe Havens: Supervised Visitation and Safe Exchange Interactive Website."

4c (Code:) (Expenses $ 2,818,963 including grants of $ 0) (Revenue $ 145,934) Crime Control & Prevention Programs: National Center for Juvenile Justice (NCJJ) projects provided training/technical assistance or other services for 714 judges, other court professionals and data providers through more than 30 trainings, on-site technical assistance visits and client/provider meetings. Research is a vital component of NCJFCJ's efforts to improve the lives of children and families. Since its inception, NCJFCJ's research division, NCJJ, has been a resource for independent and original research on topics related directly and indirectly to the field of juvenile justice. NCJJ's work looks at the nature of juvenile justice in the U.S. including trends on juvenile offending and victimization, as well as the response of the justice system to these matters. Through empirical research and program evaluations, NCJJ works to improve the effectiveness and fairness of juvenile justice system processing, improve the outcomes of its many prevention and intervention programs and guide policy development. NCJJ is the nation's primary source for data on juvenile court case processing and disseminates information through its website, ncjj.org (which logged nearly 75,000 visitors during 2014), the Statistical Briefing Book site (which logged nearly 286,000 visitors during (Continued on Schedule O, Statement 2)

Schedule D, Part V, Line 4 - The endowment consists of permanently restricted funds that were established by two private foundations located in Pittsburgh PA. The earnings on these funds are temporarily restricted to benefit and support the NCJFCJ in implementing research findings and develop new tools which will assist judges and courts serving the needs of children and families.

Schedule D, Part X, Line 2 - Income Taxes: The Organization is a nonprofit organization exempt from federal income taxes on income other than net unrelated business income under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. No provision for federal or state income taxes is required for the year ended September 30, 2014, as the Organization had no taxable net unrelated business income. The Organization follows the authoritative guidance relating to accounting for uncertainty in income taxes included in Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) Topic Income Taxes. These provisions provide consistent guidance for the accounting for uncertainty in income taxes recognized in an entity's consolidated financial statements and prescribe a threshold of "more likely than not" for recognition and derecognition of tax positions taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. The Organization performed an evaluation of uncertain tax positions for the year ended September 30, 2014, and determined that there were no matters that would require recognition in the consolidated financial statements or that may have any effect on its tax-exempt status. As of September 30, 2014, the statute of limitations for tax years ended September 30, 2011 through September 30, 2013 remain open with the U.S. federal jurisdiction or the various states and local jurisdictions in which the Organization files tax returns. It is the Organization's policy to recognize interest and/or penalties related to uncertain tax positions, if any, in income tax expense.

Part IV Supplemental Information. Provide the information required in Part I, line 2, Part III, column (b), and any other additional information.

Schedule I, Part I, Line 2 - The NCJFCJ monitors subrecipient activities throughout the program period via reporting and regular contact. Additionally NCJFCJ obtains and reviews subrecipient audit reports for each applicable fiscal year, and ensures appropriate and timely corrective action has been taken in response to any audit findings. Monitoring Steps 1) Budget Detail Overview - Approved subrecipient award applications contain a detailed budget. The budget detail must provide enough information to determine appropriate allocation of funds in the identified categories. Additionally, the budget must specify how the subrecipient arrived at the figures by detailing and showing appropriate calculations. The budget narrative should explain and justify the requests. All requests are to be reasonable and credible to the specific budget categories. 2) Certified Assurances and Grant Conditions Overview - All award applications will have Certified Assurances and Special Conditions attached. These documents contain an overview of the restrictions placed on receiving federal and or state funds. Any clarifications on meanings or interpretations will be decided by NCJFCJ. The NCJFCJ uses a risk based approach to determine the extent of monitoring required. Based on the risk assessment, it may be determined that a monitoring site visit or desk audit is required. For federal awards, if a special condition is not passed to the subrecipient, that decision should be well documented and approved by the NCJFCJ Chief Financial Officer. 3) Invoices review - Upon receipt of an invoice or request for payment from a subrecipient, NCJFCJ reviews and approves the invoice before processing payment. NCJFCJ ensures that expenditures are in line with the approved budget and seem reasonable in relation to the amount of time and work expected of the subrecipient, ensures that expenses are in agreement with the programmatic plan and work completed, ensures that expenses invoiced are allowable per the subaward agreement and the prime award, excludes any potentially unallowable items listed in the reimbursement request such as food/ meals/ entertainment/ alcohol, etc., requests backup documentation as deemed appropriate, and at the end of the award, ensures that subrecipient activities are completed. 4) Project activities overview: NCJFCJ monitors subrecipient activities throughout the program period via conference calls, periodic workgroup meetings, reviewing product phases and approving completed deliverables. All project activities and deliverables must be approved by the NCJFCJ as to quality and quantity before any payment is made.

Form 990, Part VI, Section A, Line 4 - Revised Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws to allow for non-judicial members on the Board of Directors and related changes in procedures to address non-judicial Directors.

Form 990, Part VI, Section A, Line 6 - The NCJFCJ is a judicial membership organization, as well as a charitable, educational organization.

Form 990, Part VI, Section A, Line 7a - The NCJFCJ members with voting privileges include judicial members (Active members), past presidents (Life members) and non-judicial individuals or organization representatives (Sustaining members). The Nominating Committee recommends judicial candidates to the Voting members. Voting members elect judicial Directors at the Annual Conference by majority vote. Non-judicial Directors are elected by the Board of Directors. If there is a tie vote after the casting of 3 ballots, the Presiding Officer shall be called upon to cast a vote in order to break the tie. If a judicial Director position becomes vacant, the position remains vacant until the next Annual Conference, unless the Executive Committee determines it is necessary to fill the vacancy or the number of Directors falls below the minimum. If either occurs, the vacancy will be filled from candidates interviewed by the Nominating committee at the previous Annual Conference by majority vote of the remaining Directors until the next Annual Conference, at which time the vacancy will be voted upon by the members with other open Director positions to fill the remainder of the unexpired term. The Voting members shall have the right to fill such unexpired term of office (whether or not the same had been temporarily filled by the remaining Directors) at any meeting of the Members called for that purpose. If a non-judicial Director position becomes vacant, the office shall be filled by a majority vote of the remaining Directors, at such time a viable candidate becomes available and is recommended by the Development Committee. Any person may, in recognition of outstanding service and contribution to the furtherance of the purposes of this Council, be elected an Honorary Member of the Council upon recommendation of the Board of Directors and approval at the next annual meeting of the members entitled to vote.

Form 990, Part VI, Section A, Line 7b - Voting members vote on the following items: Bylaws amendments are submitted to the Governance Committee, and proposed to the Board of Directors at their next meeting. Amendments approved by the Board of Directors are then presented to the Membership at their next annual meeting. Provided a quorum is present, Bylaws amendments will be considered effective if two-thirds (2/3) of voting members approve. All Extraordinary Transactions (as defined below) must be authorized and approved by a majority of both (1) the Board of Directors, and (2) the Voting Members at a meeting called for such purpose where a quorum is present. For purposes of these Bylaws, the term "Extraordinary Transactions" shall mean each of the following: (a) the adoption of an amendment to the Articles of Incorporation, (b) the adoption of Amended Articles of Incorporation, (c) a lease, exchange, transfer, mortgage or other disposition of all, or substantially all, the assets of the Council (provided, that the Directors shall have the power to abandon such proposed sale, lease, exchange, transfer or other disposition, subject to the contract rights of third persons, if such power of abandonment is conferred upon the Directors by the terms of transaction or by the same vote of the voting Members and at the same or any subsequent meeting of the voting Members at which the transaction is authorized by the Members), (d) any merger or consolidation of the Council into another corporation, provided, however that the surviving or new corporation, as the case may be, resulting from such merger or consolidation must be a corporation, either domestic or foreign, organized for charitable and/or educational purposes, (e) confession of a judgment against the Council, (f) any assignment for the benefit of creditors or filing of a voluntary petition under the federal Bankruptcy Code or state insolvency law on behalf of the Council, (g) an action in contravention of these Bylaws or the Council's Articles of Incorporation, and (h) approval of the voluntary dissolution of the Council or revoking proceedings therefore. Policy statements and resolutions represent the official positions of the Council. Resolutions or policy statements presented to the Board but not passed by a two-thirds majority of the Board of Directors, are presented to the membership at the annual meeting and will be adopted by a majority vote. Recommendations to support legislation shall be adopted if approved by a majority vote of the voting members of the Board of Directors. If the recommendation is adopted by less than a two-thirds vote of the entire Board of Directors, a motion by three or more Directors may request that the matter be submitted to a vote by the membership of NCJFCJ. A majority vote of the members voting shall adopt the legislative recommendation.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11b - The Chief Financial Officer (CFO) prepares a timeline for preparation and review of the Form 990 subsequent to the issuance of the audited financial reports. Also at that time, the CFO makes a presentation to the Board that addresses any changes that may have occurred in reporting requirements since the last filing, if any. The Form 990 is prepared based on the audited financial statements. Typically due to timing, an extension of time to file is needed to ensure a complete and accurate return. The return is prepared by the CFO and forwarded to the independent accountants for review. The Form 990 is then sent electronically to all members of the Board of Directors for review and comment. Approximately a week is allotted for Board review prior to the filing of the return electronically.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c - Conflict of Interest Policy-All NCJFCJ employees and Board members are required to complete a Conflict of Interest (COI) Training within 30 days of date of hire or joining the Board. Employees, officers, Board members, committee members and others are also responsible for reading the COI policy, signing the COI Policy Acknowledgment Form and Disclosure Form, and returning them as directed. These forms must be signed annually or as necessary. The purpose of the Conflict of Interest Policy is to protect the NCJFCJ's interest when it is contemplating entering into a transaction or arrangement that might benefit the private interest of an officer, staff member, committee member or director of the organization or might result in a possible excess benefit transaction. No Officer, Board of Directors member, committee member, director or employee of the NCJFCJ shall participate personally through decisions, approvals, disapprovals, recommendations, or other actions in any circumstance or particular matter involving the expenditure of grant or contract funds where, to his or her knowledge, he or she, his or her immediate family, business partners, or organizations other than the NCJFCJ in which he or she is serving as an officer, Director, partner, or employee, or any person or organization with whom the employee is negotiating or has any arrangement concerning prospective employment has an apparent or actual financial interest in the transaction. The CEO shall make the determination as to whether in any given situation recusal will be sufficient to mitigate the apparent or actual conflict of interest, or in the case of the CEO, such determinations will be made by the President of the NCJFCJ. In the case of an apparent or actual conflict of interest involving Officers, Directors, or committee members, such determinations will be made by the Audit Committee or NCJFCJ Conduct Committee, depending upon the nature of the conflict. In addition, in the use of grant or contract funds, interested persons should avoid even the appearance of: Using his or her position for private gain; Giving preferential treatment to any person; Losing complete independence or impartiality; Making decisions outside normal administrative procedures; or, Adversely affecting the confidence of the public in the integrity of the NCJFCJ and its programs. The Audit Committee shall address all reported concerns or complaints regarding corporate accounting practices, internal controls or auditing, and shall be immediately notified of any such complaint. All individuals within the organization, including Officers, Board of Directors members, directors, employees, and committee members will be required to sign a Conflict of Interest Policy Acknowledgment Form and Disclosure Form annually and as required through the year. It is prohibited for relatives to occupy positions in which one supervises the other or is in a position to exert direct influence on the appointment (including temporary), promotion, transfer, pay or discipline of the other. For purposes of this rule, "relative" includes: one's husband, wife, son, daughter, mother, father, brother, sister, brother-in-law, sister-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, mother-in-law, father-in-law, aunt, uncle, niece, nephew, stepparent, or stepchild; an individual residing in the same household as the employee; or an individual sharing a committed, personal relationship with an employee. The COI Policy defines interested persons, financial interests, and other interests. The Policy outlines procedures regarding duty to disclose, addressing a conflict of interest and violations of the COI Policy. Records shall be kept of all deliberations of the appropriate authority. The Policy states what shall be covered in the Acknowledgment Form and mandates periodic reviews. Adherence to the COI is monitored by the CEO's Office, Chief Administrative Officer and Chief Financial Officer. Human Resources is responsible for providing each new employee with the Conflict of Interest policy and forms and a timeline for returning the Acknowledgment and Disclosure forms to the Executive Assistant. Annual dissemination of the policy and forms is conducted for staff at the beginning of the calendar year, and for Board and Committee members after committee appointments are made by the NCJFCJ President, either July or August of each year. Periodically throughout the year, reminders are given, asking that new Disclosure forms be submitted if there is anything new to report since the individual last completed a Disclosure form. Receipt of the Acknowledgment and Disclosure forms are tracked by the Executive Assistant. Forms received by staff are then forwarded to Human Resources and maintained with personnel records. Forms received from Board and Committee members are maintained in the CAO's office. Followup is done by staff, or referred to the Executive Committee to ensure that each Board member or staff, and relevant Committee members, submit the Acknowledgment and Disclosure forms annually, at a minimum. Each Disclosure form is reviewed for responses, relationships or any potential conflicts are recorded on a master disclosure list, and potential conflicts are reviewed and acted upon according to procedures outlined in the COI Policy.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15 - The compensation for the CEO is determined by the President of the Board of Directors. The President receives input on the amount of compensation from the Executive Committee and Directors. The Executive Director/CEO determines compensation for the senior management positions within the organization based upon an established compensation plan (the Executive Director/CEO is also covered under the compensation plan). Annually, the Finance Committee reviews comparability data for all senior management positions and makes a presentation of the comparability data to the full Board of Directors in executive session. The Board then discusses the comparability data and makes a decision with a vote of the full Board of Directors as to the reasonableness of the organization's executive compensation. The deliberation is contemporaneously substantiated in the written minutes of the meeting.

Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 19 - The organization's governing documents, conflict of interest policy, audited financial statements, and Form 990s are available on the organization's website and available on request (either electronically or hard copy).

Form 990, Part IX, Line 11g - Consultants with specific area expertise are utilized for program deliverables, plenaries, and Board development.

First Program Service Accomplishments Description

Description

Deinstitutionalization of Status Offenders; Detention Alternatives; Juvenile Sanctions; and Juvenile Sex Offenders. Recent publications include School Pathways to the Juvenile Justice System Project: A Practice Guide and Preparing for a Trauma Consultation in Your Juvenile and Family Court. The NCJFCJ also has partnered with courts across the country to improve outcomes for abused and neglected children and their families, and has convened a Tribal Leadership Group to promote meaningful collaboration among Tribes and state courts which handle these cases. The Model Courts Project works to identify impediments to the timeliness of court events and delivery of services for families with children in care and then design and implement courts and agency-based changes to address these barriers. NCJFCJ benchbooks the "Resource Guidelines: Improving Court Practice in Child Abuse & Neglect Cases" and the "Adoption and Permanency Guidelines," provide a best practice approach to developing court processes. NCJFCJ published a Technical Assistance Bulletin designed to provide information and aspirational practice recommendations to dependency courts and judges with regard to bringing children to court for hearings related to their own dependency cases, finalized and regularly presented on a Judicial Leadership Curriculum designed to help judges lead systems reform, and developed a training evaluation guide and tools to ensure effective evaluation of training outcomes. NCJFCJ also performs research and evaluation in areas such as dependency court improvement, compliance with the Indian Child Welfare Act, and disproportionality in child welfare, and during this fiscal year published three articles in peer reviewed publications and published eight Technical Assistance bulletins, briefs, papers, or reports from evaluation and assessment work in this area.
